

2011 wine by brad Semillon Sauvignon Blanc

Pungent grassy Margaret River sem sav bounces out of the glass, followed by citrus aromas, pineapple, guava and smoky spice. A creamy palate with gorgeous lemony richness is balanced neatly by zippy, zesty freshness. Fresh tropical elements wrapped neatly in scrummy citrus flavours provide the purrrfect summer cleanser. Cool for cats.

The fruit comes from southern and northern Margaret River and shows the cool & classy characters this blend is renowned for. Get into it!

The ultimate Margaret River white from a super Margaret River vintage. Wow...! You know you love it. Go on – treat yourself – grab a bottle and pour yourself a big glass.

Chill it, crack it, chug it - with summer salads and seafood.

2009 wine by brad Cabernet Merlot

Aromas of dark chocolate and coffee... vanillan oak... tobacco-leaf and blackcurrant... spicy plum and blueberry. The palate follows with deep, dark, fleshy, ripe blackcurrant flavours and some silky smooth vanillan oak.

The fruit comes from southern and northern Margaret River vineyards and we reckon this is pretty smart stuff. Cab Merlot is classy says brad.

There's nothing better than rich, dark chocolate and dense blackcurrant with a touch of mint rounded out by some stylish French oak - cabernet merlot by brad is hard to beat.

Pizza, pasta, beef, lamb, cheese - enjoy!

2010 Mantra Chardonnay [Invocation]

Everything you need in Margaret River chardonnay is here in its abundant glory! Spicy fig and supple melon, lush kiwifruit, honeydew and peach... and more. A touch of sweet vanillan oak wraps it up.

The palate is fresh and zingy – some nice linear acidity – but revel in the ample fleshiness of tropical fruits, the creamy texture, and the subtle and toasty wood.

A challenging day. Close your eyes and imagine. Invoke the rich, ripe fruits of Margaret River chardonnay – melon and fig, peach and nectarine, guava and honeydew. Lift the glass to your lips. And taste.

Invocation – this is your mantra.

2008 Mantra Cabernet Sauvignon [abundance]

Deep, dark chocolate cherry... cassis and blackcurrant... plum and raspberry, spicy anise. Textbook Margaret River cabernet sauvignon. Throw some charry French oak into the equation and you've nailed it.

The palate continues the theme with red and blackcurrant flavours, fleshy and ripe, wrapped neatly in cedary, vanillan, toasty wood.

This is your reward. Goodness knows you've earned it. I mean how hard do you work? Well, pack the day away and revel in a glass of rich, lush Margaret River cab sav.

Abundance – this is your mantra.

2008 Mantra Sangiovese [salvezza]

Typical Margaret River fleshy stonefruits dominate but first enjoy the aromas of spicy passionfruit, citrus lemon and lime, with gooseberry and grapefruit pungency.

The palate shows crunchy bean and snowpea characters rounded out with banana passionfruit and crisp, sweet pineapple to finish. Lovely texture and lingering fruit sweetness make this the perfect summer wine.

It's simple really. With a gurgle and a splash the worries of the day are swept away. Secrets are revealed in the tropical pungent vibrancy in your glass. Isn't that better?

Revelation – this is your mantra.

2008 Mantra Shiraz [Journey]

Spicy white and black pepper... blackberry, cherry chocolate and earthy tones... plus: perfumed potpourri and scents of chai. The classic aromas of Margaret River shiraz. A little vanillan oak to finish and this becomes a rich and supple beauty.

A textural, firm yet fine palate showing juicy blackberry flavours with a chocolatey undercurrent. Black pepper and fine white pepper again, more eastern spices, mouthfilling and rich and long.

There are goals to which you aspire - the realisation of dreams. But in striving for these, where have the hours and days gone? How do you feel right now? Savour the moment. The journey is the destination. Enjoy...

Journey – this is your mantra.
